

Business Wizards

We are honored to have Dan Scott as our Business Wizards in Spring 2024. Dan is a successful business executive who has worked for more than twenty-five years for Flowers Foods & Subsidiaries. He holds a current position as Senior Vice-President of DSD Sales, overseeing all DSD route operations that generate more than $4B in annual revenues.

Flowers Foods, headquartered in Thomasville, Georgia, is a producer and marketer of bread, buns, and sweet goods. The company operates 47 bakeries producing bread, buns, rolls, pastries, and tortillas. Flowers Foods' products are sold regionally through a direct store delivery network that encompasses the East, South, Southwest, West, and the Northwest regions of the United States and are delivered nationwide to retailer's warehouses.

Flowers Foods makes such brands as Nature's Own, Wonder bread and Dave's Killer bread.

Dan Scott

Dan is excited to share his professional experiences with us and his advice on how to succeed in the business world. Dan will also share his expectations for hiring Business Administration students.
