Your 2016 – 2017 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) has been selected for a review process called verification. As part of the verification process, information from your/spouse's 2015 Federal Tax Return must be supplied to our office. Please answer the questions below and attach the requested documentation if applicable, provide signatures, and return these documents to our office. A copy of your/your spouse's completed IRS Form 4868 (Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return) must be attached to this form. Please note the completion of this form gives you three weeks after the filing deadline to provide our office with all of the documentation required for the verification process. Failure to provide all requested documentation could result in loss of financial aid for the school year.
