

HOW TO VIEW YOUR REGISTRATION DAY/TIME IN SELF SERVICE CAROLINA

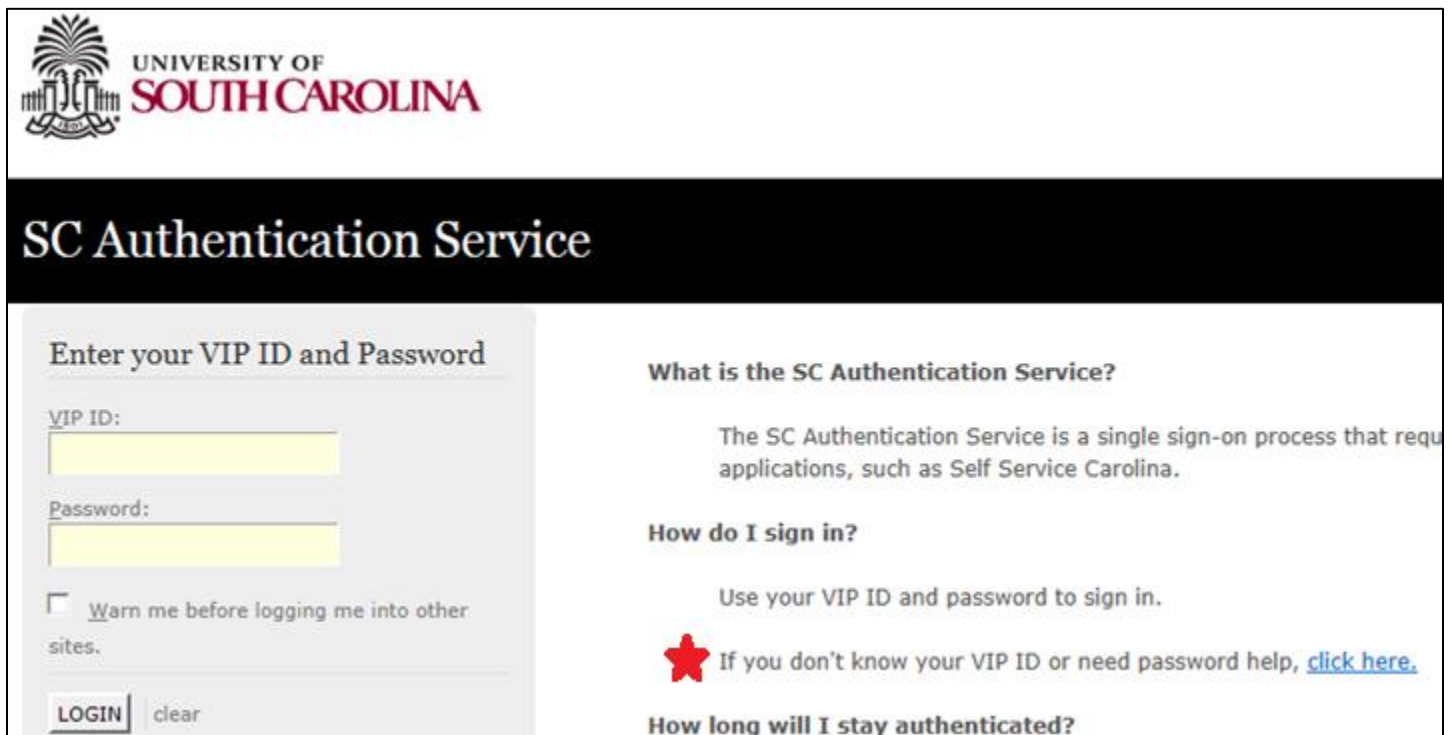

STEP 1: Visit my.sc.edu and click on “Self Service Carolina” under the heading “Admitted for Fall 2013.”

(You should click here even you are a continuing student.)

The screenshot shows the my.sc.edu website. The top navigation bar includes links for Admitted Students, Enrolled Students, Faculty/Advisors, Alumni, Employees, and Applicants. The main content area is titled 'Admitted Students' and provides instructions to choose a link based on the admission term. Two categories are highlighted: 'Admitted for Spring/Summer 2013' and 'Admitted for Fall 2013'. Under 'Admitted for Fall 2013', a list of links is provided, with a red arrow pointing to 'Self Service Carolina (SSC)'. Other links include 'Set Your VIP ID Password', 'Set Your USC Network Username/Email Password', 'Pay Enrollment Deposit (Columbia Only)', 'Housing Information', 'Orientation Information (Coming Soon)', 'South Carolina Residency', and 'Financial Aid – Self Service Carolina (SSC)'. The left sidebar contains various utility links such as 'VIP', 'Blackboard', and 'Service Desk'.

STEP 2: Enter your VIP ID and password. (If you don't know these, follow the instructions from this page that say “If you don't know your VIP ID or need password help, click here.”)

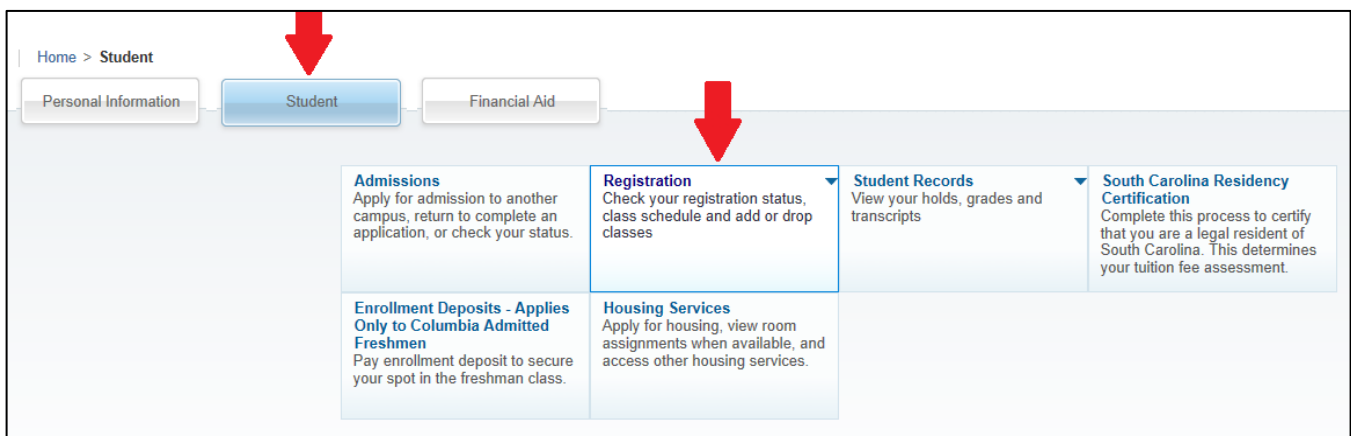

The screenshot shows the SC Authentication Service login page. The top left features the University of South Carolina logo. The main heading is 'SC Authentication Service'. On the left, there is a login form titled 'Enter your VIP ID and Password' with fields for 'VIP ID:' and 'Password:', a checkbox for 'Warn me before logging me into other sites.', and a 'LOGIN' button with a 'clear' link. On the right, there is informational text under the heading 'What is the SC Authentication Service?' which states it is a single sign-on process. Below that, 'How do I sign in?' is answered with 'Use your VIP ID and password to sign in.' A red star icon is followed by the text 'If you don't know your VIP ID or need password help, click here.' The bottom right section is titled 'How long will I stay authenticated?'.
