

Al M. Panu, Ph.D.

Chancellor

An accomplished scholar and academic leader, Al M. Panu, Ph.D., is the second Chancellor of the University of South Carolina Beaufort since it achieved baccalaureate status in 2004. He was appointed chancellor in 2015. Dr. Panu has devoted more than three decades to scholarship, teaching and higher education leadership in public comprehensive universities within the University System of Georgia. He and his wife Judith are the parents of three grown children.

- PhD, Chemistry – University of Georgia
- MS, Chemistry – University of Alabama
- BS, Chemistry – Tuskegee University