Detailed Schedule

Student Research & Scholarship Day Hall of Champions

Saturday, October 5th, 12:00-4:00 PM,
Bluffton Campus- Hargray Lobby
Free Event

Each spring USCB students have the opportunity to present the research they have done in their courses. Take a moment during the day to stop by this presentation of the winning posters from Spring 2024. This will give you a glimpse into the types of research activities that students will engage in throughout their time at USCB.

Society of Creative Writers Presents: *The Pen Reading

Saturday, October 5th, 3:30-4:30 PM,
Bluffton Campus- Hargray 156
Free Event

The Pen is a six-time national award-winning literary journal sponsored by USCB's student-led organization, the Society of Creative Writers. It is produced under the English, Arts, & Interdisciplinary Studies Department at the University of South Carolina Beaufort and is advised by Dr. Ellen Malphrus. Students will be reading their published work from the publication during the event.

USCB First Annual First-Year Tree Planting Ceremony

Saturday, October 5th, 4:30-5:30 PM,
Bluffton Campus- Campus Center Lawn
Free Event

What life lessons can be learned from a tree? That is a question our first-year students will be pondering in UNIV B101 this fall. We worked with Norman Varnes who is the inaugural recipient of the Norman Varnes Service to USCB Award and greenhouse and groundskeeper for USCB to put together a lesson for our students to think about what they need to grow and thrive at USCB, just like the tree they will help plant at this event.

Chancellor's Family Cookout

Saturday, October 5th, 5:00-7:00 PM,
Bluffton Campus- Campus Center Lawn
USCB Chancellor, Dr. Al Panu invites you to a cookout with great food, lively music, and good company. We will have lawn games, a photo booth, and pumpkin painting to ring in the fall.

Family Weekend Bingo

Saturday, October 5th, 7:00-9:00 PM,
Bluffton Campus- Campus Center 105
Everybody loves Bingo! Come ready to play with your student. We will have a variety of prizes from USCB swag for our family members and dorm room essentials for your students. A sweet treat will be provided.

FAMILY WEEKEND

Student Emergency Fund Silent Auction

The Student Emergency Fund helps USCB students who unexpectedly find themselves in need of assistance to combat situations such as housing or food insecurity. Throughout Family Weekend we will have a silent auction to raise funds for the fund.

The auction will have items such as USCB Basketball tickets, USCB Campus Store merchandise, a private golf course foursome, and more.

The auction opens at the Family Weekend Welcome Reception and closes at the end of the Chancellor's Cookout.

DONATE DIRECTLY TO THE STUDENT EMERGENCY FUND

Brunch with Purpose Student Shark Shack Drop-Off

The Shark Shack houses USCB's free student pantry and career closet. It is typically open Monday through Friday between 9 AM- 5 PM. This resource is located in the Campus Center near the Housing Office in Bluffton and in 1100 Boundary in Beaufort. The Shark Shack completely free and accessible to all USCB full-time and part-time students.

During the Brunch with Purpose Event on Saturday, October 5th from 10:00AM-2:00PM we will be collecting donations for the Shark Shack.

The student pantry is in need of individually wrapped food items, breakfast foods, snacks, school supplies, personal hygiene items, cleaning products, and detergent.

The career closet is in need of gently used professional clothing donations for both men and women in all sizes including, pants, shirts, blazers, dresses, suites, and skirts.
